The Song

Pay special attention to the chorus:

*Come on, come on
Don't wait until the damage is done
It's gone when it's gone
Don't you want to know what we could become
On and on we run and we run from life
It's time we chase the smoke of our guns
And we make this right*

As you listen, think about phrases that stick out to you and then answer the following questions:

What does this song have to do with excuses?

What is the singer trying to convince you to do?

What kind of "damage" do you think he's referring to?

What do you think he means by what "we could become"?

Bible Study

1 Peter 1:13-16

The Bible instructs us to be more than just forgiven. We are called to be self-controlled and obedient. Although, God doesn't require us to be perfect, He expects us to be transformed on a daily basis through Christ living in us.

Be honest with yourself and God:

How have you been making excuses for following Jesus?

Where have you compromised your spiritual walk?

What kind of damage has been done?

Confess those things to God, receive His forgiveness, and ask Him for strength to overcome anything that is preventing you from living a holy life.
